Thanksgiving day next Thursday. Prepare your turkey.

Fresh Oysters at Osterle's, every day, by the can or dish.

A few more molasses and meat barrels left at the cooper shop—cheap. C. C. RUSSELL.

We understand that the Pilot Knob Iron Company has reduced output of ore 25 per cent.—probably the result of Garfield's election.

As we go to press we learn that a man was found yesterday near Graniteville, hanging by the neck, dead. A suicide. No particulars.

Arrangements have been perfected for giving two mails, north and south, per day, and the new arrangement begins to-day (Wednesday).

No. 2 had an accident at Ironville this (Wednesday) morning. Two of the coaches were derailed, and it is probable No. 1, in consequence, will be several hours late.

The meeting of the Y. M. L. C. has been postponed until Nov. 23, on account of unfavorable weather. Subject for debate:
"Should Chinese immigration be encouraged."

And now we read of a walking horse in Cape county which recently covered 46 miles in five hours and twenty minutes—at a walk! We'll bet he is a Republican horse. Such walking is out of all proportion to the distance.

A happy man, who as a helpmeet proves, Whose heart and soul his slightest impulse moves.

But bless is he, and filled his great desire, Whose wife will up and build the kitchen fire.

Beware of bogus sewing machines! If you want to buy a genuine machine, guaranteed to you for five years, call on H. Davis, Ironton Mo. I have one Wilcox & Gibbs hand-sewing machine, in fine working order. For sale cheap.

All desiring Genuine Singer Sewing Machines, Needles, Oil, and Attachments, will please call at the Branch Office. Removed to one door South of Garfield's clothing store.
SINGER MFG. COMPANY,
Ironton, Mo.

We learn that five h-yacks belonging to Judge D. H. Palmer, of Bellevue, were burned last Friday night. It was the work of in-fernalities. There are some bad people about Bellevue, and we trust the many good citizens of that Valley may not be satisfied until the scoundrels are brought to punishment.

STRAYED—From the undersigned about six weeks ago, one Red Sorrel Horse about 15½ hands high; small white spot on left shoulder; long, light body; heavy quarters. Had on plated shoes. About eleven years old.
Stout limbs. Reward $10.
JAS. STRICKLAND,
Nov 16 1880. De Soto, Mo.

In our tabulated statement of the official vote of Iron county, last week, there were two errors in the "total" column. Mr. Wadsworth and Mr. Edgar were each given just one hundred votes less than they were entitled to.
As the REGISTER's summary up made them run behind the national ticket, the justice of correcting it will be apparent to all.

DRESS MAKING.—Mrs. May Whelbel, at the Methodist Parsonage, two squares west of the REGISTER office, has opened a dress-making establishment, and will be pleased to receive calls in her line. Fine sewing is made a specialty. Mr. W. is an adept in her business, and those who patronize her may rest assured of having their work well done.

Attention is directed to the prospectus of the GLOBE-DEMOCRAT, in another column of this paper. What we may be said of the politics of the Globe and its aims—its aims—as a newspaper, or its aims to be a commercial department, is especially well taken care of, and the reports very full and complete. Its other good points are so apparent as to make reference to them unnecessary.

Tuesday Old Winter came down on us in earnest, and snow commenced falling as it did thermometer. Wednesday morning the mercury stood at 14 degrees above zero, and more than one good housewife's fire-pots contained only the wilted ghosts of the plants which had gladdened their owners' eyes the evening before. It is a colder snap than we had all winter, and means plenty of ice for next summer.

The city. Fine Committee flow iron and town last Thursday, and we understand succeeded in getting themselves into numerous houses, to the boisterous of the industrious inmates.
They annoyed us with numerous questions about the elections, and other matters pertaining to the safety of the city during the coming winter, and then gracefully accepting a delicate hint, took their leave. Come again, gentlemen, when you're in a bigger hurry.

THE LAST CALL.—Again, and for the last time, the City Collector calls the attention of everybody that tax-paying time is here—almost gone by. On and after the 1st of December, a penalty of one per cent. will be added, beside other costs which may ensue. Therefore all who are delinquent will please come up and pay while the day of grace is left.
Come one, come all, without delay.
And quick to me your taxes pay.
P. PATTON, City Collector.

From a special to the Republicans, we learn that Judge Dinning last Saturday morning paid a wager he had made with Mr. A. Block, of Potosi, on the election of Hancock. The bet was that if Hancock was defeated the Judge had to wheel Block from the latter's store to the depot in a wheelbarrow, and vice versa if Garfield had been defeated Dinning would have had the ride. The colored band headed the procession, followed by all the gamins in Potosi, and played "Dixie" while marching to the depot. A great deal of mirth was created by the performance of the Judge's arduous duty.

On Monday came Stickney's Circus and Menagerie, and with it our first winter storm. It grew so cold that the circus performance was omitted in the afternoon, and in the evening a minstrel performance was substituted. The management then determined to rest here until arrangements could be perfected for transporting the whole outfit to the sunny South.
In the meantime giving another entertainment Tuesday afternoon and evening. We understand Mr. Stickney has cancelled all engagements between here and Little Rock. He proposes to winter in the orange groves of Florida. The stock belonging to the outfit is in excellent condition, the tents are almost new, and everything in good trim. We have no doubt but that, under favorable circumstances, the performances are above the average.

There was a death in the jail last Friday.
Some time in September, a man who was evidently travelling in the Valley of the Shadow of Death, got off the train at Ironton. He was unable to care for himself, and the authorities took charge of him, lodging him in the jail. Medical attendance was given him, but his time was short, and last Friday, as above stated, he died, and was buried at the expense of the county. His name was Ernest Norton, and the place of his nativity Germany. It is thought he had been discharged from one of the St. Louis hospitals, as incurable, and sent down here to get him out of the way. He's "out of the way" now, for good and all, and the world relieved of his presence forever.
"Then rattle his bones over the stones, He's only a pauper whom nobody owns."

A TRAIN FIRED INTO.—On Thursday, November 4, the north-bound passenger train on the Iron Mountain was fired into by an unknown negro, at the Wood Rank, near Horine, twenty-nine miles south of St. Louis. Special Agent Byers, of the railroad, was on the train, but the time lost in bringing the cars to a stop afforded the culprit an opportunity to escape for the time being. Byers set his head to work to capture the coon, and here is how he accomplished what appeared to be an impossible feat. He went to every negro inhabitant in the vicinity, and every person was accounted for except one named Bill Boyce. In fact, Byers learned that he had been seen at the Wood Rank with a rifle on his shoulder. The rifle shot into the train with 100 lbs. of children, and among them was Mrs. W. H. Winfield, whose colored man servant, Abe Merrill, saw the negro when he fired. Byers sent for him, and he at once identified Boyce as the one who did the shooting. Byers at once arrested the great, which occurred on Tuesday. He was immediately taken before a Justice of the Peace and committed to the Hillsboro Jail in default of bail, under a charge of assault to do great bodily harm, a felony in the eyes of the law.

Ed. Register—
Being always interested in reading correspondence from different parts of the county, we think a few lines from these parts will not be out of place in your paper. We deem it useless to worry the patience of your readers by describing the weather, as all doubtless know the election, or something else, brought the first snow-storm of the season. Nevertheless, if we were sure that nothing worse than a snow-storm would follow the Presidential election, we would have but little to dread, and could hope our national affairs in a prosperous condition.

Not being a candidate for anything but marriage, we had no personal interest in the late election except a hearty desire for the triumph of the Democratic party.

We have the highest regards for some of our Republican friends who were candidates for office in the county election last past, yet they must not think hard of us Democrats for rejecting over their defeat, for they know very well they would have laughed in their sleeves to have seen us standing with our hands in our pockets while our candidates were being paddled up Salt River.

We have not had an opportunity till this late hour to congratulate our lately married young friend Edgar, upon his choice for life.
We would assure Mr. and Mrs. Ed. that they have our best wishes and highest regards, which is all we can tender them as a pledge of our esteem at present. May their future be as cloudless as a balmy morn, and their pathway a rown with the flowers of success; and may they tread the paths of life in peace down to a good old age.

Our young friends, George Collins and James Twomey, met with quite an accident the other day. While driving a two-horse wagon along the road leading from Ironton to Patterson, near Crane Pond Creek, they were thrown from their seat; and becoming entangled, were thrown under the wagon and run over by the wheels. They were pre-tently badly used up; but, fortunately, received no very serious injuries, their having been so many scraps saved them from being run to pieces. H. T.

"Wine is a mocker, and strong drink is raging." Take Freckly Ash Bitters. It is not a beverage but a remedy for all ill effects of an excess of intoxicating stimulants. Don't take a drink before breakfast just to wake you up, because you feel so up and lunged. You are sure to feel worse as soon as the effect wears off. Take a half wine glass of Freckly Ash Bitters. It will brighten you up or the whole day.

EVERY FAMILY WITHOUT EXCEPTION.—In City, Village, and Country, will find it highly useful to constantly read the American Agriculturist. It abounds in plain, practical, reliable information, most valuable for in-door as well as out-door work and comfort, and its $5 to 1,000 Original Engravings in every volume are both pleasing and instructive. In this respect it is pre-eminent and stands alone, and it should have a place in every household, no matter how many other journals are taken.
Its Illustrated Department for Youth and Children contains much information as well as amusement. Its Hamburg exposures are valuable to all classes. The cost is very low, only $1.50 from now to the end of 1881, or four cents for $5. Single numbers, 15 cents. One specimen, 6 cents. Take our advice and subscribe now for volume 40 (1881).

way, New York.

$10 REWARD.

STRAYED—From the undersigned, at Iron Mountain, about the last of August, a Dark Bay Filler, four years old next spring; about 15 hands high; brand T. H. on the left shoulder; no other marks. I will give ten dollars reward to any person bringing her to me, or furnishing such information as will lead to her recovery. Call on, or write to W. B. JONES,
Nov. 10, 1880.—4t. Iron Mountain, Mo.

STRAYED—From the undersigned, on the night of the 17th inst., a Gray Mare and Sorrel Colt, and when last seen a young mule was with them. The mare is eight years old, pony built; a big scar on her right hind leg.
The colt is a light sorrel, bald face, and one year old. When last seen, they were traveling toward Farmington. Any person taking up the mare and colt, and notifying me, will be liberally recompensed for his expense and trouble. PAUL PATTON, Ironton.

WATCHES.
We have a number of the celebrated Waterbury Watches, which we are enabled to dispose of at a small advance on the manufacturer's prices, thus saving the profits of jobbers and retailers. They are full size, excellent timekeepers, stem-winders, handsome in appearance and very durable, and from every place in which one is sold, orders for from six to a hundred and upwards follow. They retail at from $10 to $15 each. Sample watches will be sent by mail, registered, on receipt of $5.
We refer with pleasure to the publisher of this paper, with whom we do business.

PROSPECTUS.

In issuing the prospectus for 1881, the GLOBE-Democrat can make no promise for the future that is not reasonably sure of fulfillment, judging from its history of the past. In the Presidential contest just closed it was recognized as the leading champion of the Republican cause in the West, advocating the men and the principles of the great party of freedom and nationality, and always the exponent of its advanced thought. We shall continue that course faithfully in the future, so long as the Republican party remains true to the principle on which it set forth twenty years ago.

The election of James A. Garfield and Charles A. Arthur as President and Vice-President of the United States, by an unquestioned majority of the electoral votes, secures peace and prosperity to the country for four years. We believe the new Administration will soon gain confidence and harmony will continue to prevail, and steadily hold the confidence, not only of the Republican party, but of the nation, by its wisdom and integrity as well as by its loyalty to the power.
